BANK SCANDAL VICTIMS SUFFER

Dear Regis.

THANK you for your article regarding the recent bank scandal (see story entitled 'Another bank rip-off'. The AvaStar issue 40).

I am sure many are wondering why we would invest our money in a Second Life Bank, Xavier [Hathaway] had been working with Jasper Tizzy since January 2007.

ENDORSED

Jasper has several web based businesses including galaxycommunities. com. Also, the debit card program was endorsed by Philip Linden at the recent Second Life convention in Chicago.

UNFRIENDLY

Because of these reasons, we had no reason to mistrust Jasper. And, as always, hindsight is 20/20. We realise we will never get our money back but our concern was for everyone else in SL. They call Second Life a 'game'. And sometimes, it is a very unfriendly game.

Thank you for your article and for bringing light to this situation.

I CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT...

...this Animation Override from Torrid/Maitreya. It combines poses and walks from Torridwear and Maitreya. The animated 'runway style' poses from both creators are stylish and animate flawlessly. They look great. Torrid's AO has got some great landing and taking off poses, it's well worth checking out."

I ADORE...

"...Celestial Studios Classic prim eyelashes. They just add so much glamour to my avatar. They change the shape of my avatars eyes from a visual perspective and make her look sexier, more realistic. It might take a few minutes to fit prim lashes to your shape, but it's worth it!"

I ALWAYS WEAR...

"...eyes by Miriel Enfield in the Pacific colour. I can't stress enough how a nice pair of eyes can make your avatar look more life-like and personable, and Miriel's are the prettiest I've seen yet. Her vendors also let you choose your own permissions and the pupil size. How cool is that?"

WIFE UNSURE ABOUT KIDS COMMITMENT WITH MAN

Dear Randi: MY husband and I have been married here for three months, and we have been wildly happy. We love going out dancing at formal clubs as well as dives, and attending all manner of concerts and discussions together. But recently he said he would like to adopt a child here, and he is pretty enthusiastic about it. I have no children in RL and am not sure how I feel about this - I'm guite in two minds. My guestion is, should I deny him his dream, or should I just keep guiet and go along with it? — R.G.

Randí says: Your reluctance is understandable since you have such little experience with children. And it's natural for you to want him all to yourself. My suggestion is that you agree to allow him to adopt a boy, and perhaps you will come to love his new friend. But you should not make a commitment to raise him unless you have completely embraced the concept.

GIRL SEEKS NO STRINGS ATTATCHED SEX WITH EX

Dear Randí: MY first SL boyfriend and I had an amicable break up several months ago. He said that with all the attractive ladies here he didn't want to settle down with just one. We went our separate ways and both are now currently unattached. Recently I attended a bachelorette party with several girlfriends, and I was surprised to see he was the featured stripper! The sex was always great, and I can't stop thinking about taking him back to bed. I just don't want to get involved. What should I do? — B.H.

Randi says: It sounds as if you're looking for a 'friend with benefits'. If he is willing to go along under those conditions, then take him back under the sheets. Just don't make a commitment. One well-known aspect of SL is the ability to experiment sexually with no fear of pregnancy or disease. As long as neither of you is hurting anyone else, enjoy.

INTERVIEW

The AvaStar: What is your best feature?

Schmophitt Neruda: My inventory. A place for everything and everything in its place - usually within an hour of acquirement!

TA: How do you spend your time in SL?

SN: Hanging out with friends, at home building or working - I run the Blarney Stone Irish Bar, schedule live music events there and I also make women's clothes.

TA: What would you change in SL?

SN: I would make account registration requirements stricter again, and I would give torus prims flexi option so I could make gigantic prim slinkies!

TA: What's the funniest thing you've seen in the bar?

SN: Me wearing a tiny little Japanese girl Haikara avi. I stood on the bar and someone paid me thinking I was a tipiar!

TA: What's the most memorable design you've made?

SN: Combat pants I made a few days ago.

TA: What is the most precious item in your inventory?

SN: A gold locket necklace I bought from Lassitude and Ennui many moons ago.
