ORGANISING THE CELEBRATIONS

By MANTA MESSMER

SIGNPOSTMARV MAR-TIN IS IN CHARGE OF ORGANISING THIS YEAR'S SL BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS.

THE AVASTAR: Has there been pressure on you to make this year bigger and better than ever?

SIGNPOSTMARVMARTIN:

You'd think there would be, but as SL grows, so does the passion of its residents and so naturally as time progresses, things do get better and better.

TA: How many do you expect to turn up?

SM: Lots and lots. It's too early to say but SL3B was about half the size of SL4B, and it had to be extended by a week to allow everyone a chance to see it.

TA: How much has SL grown up since its last birthday?

SM: As a platform, SL has changed little over the last year, it's the community that has grown more. Each day residents find new things to do in this ever-expanding world of ours.

TA: What will you be up to on the big day?

SM: Helping make sure everything goes smoothly.

LACOSTE EXHIBIT

By Petronilla Paperdoll

PHOTOGRAPHY lovers flocked to the opening of an exhibition by Marco Manray this week featuring the six winners of the recent in-world modelling competition run by RL clothing firm Lacoste.

The renowned in-world photographer and AvaStar contributor, who specialises in virtual worlds, has snapped the three boys and three girls wearing the Lacoste Spring/Summer 2007 collection at the exhibition, mounted by Community Chest at Crao Beach.

Manray's photos not only document the intrinsic beauty of his avatar subjects, who emerged victorious from more than 500 entrants, but his artist's eve also studies their movement in space and the graphic impact of their whole outfit on the simple bright background of SL's blue sky. The result is an original dynamic approach which transforms the beautiful models into aesthetic icons of the metaverse. The exhibition will be on until June 28.

A DENTISTS, A TRADE FAIR, A GOVERNMENT OFFICE - JUST SOME OF THIS WEEK'S NEW SIMS

THOSE in need of a few virtual fillings can this week right next head to 'hmt', a new, first of its kind dental practice located on the island of Ouist.

Also opened this week, Ideea-Virtual island is a trade fair island where SL agencies can promote their services. Among them are SL Talk where German residents can send SMS to German mobiles whilst at the stand, and SL TV station L4You is also involved.

to the impressive Virtual Museum of Art, which hosts Gottfried

Helnwein's collection. Synaxon is mainly interested in human resources in SL, aiming to find out whether the virtual world is a good place for recruiting.

Other sims opening this week include Austrian E-Government platform HELP.gv.at. The large office will provide information and advice, and will enable communication with the 60,000 active Austrian SL residents. This Saturday, top fashion deopened it's doors signer Neferia Abel's new Sim Ivalde will open.

ROMANCE ICE SKATING

Perfect Island (35, 90, 35)

If you can think of romance whilst ice-skating and not fall on your face, then you will find much to enjoy at this Perfect Island attraction, which manages the equally rare feat of being an ice rink in a tropical paradise.

CLANGER'S INVENTIONS

Clangers Inventions (171,125,40)

In creating this sim, Clanger has opened up his mind to let out all the weird and wonderful things inside, creating a riot of clashing colours and head-bending patterns. It's a psychedelic wonderland you'll never forget!

FLAVIAN GLADIATOR ARENA

ROMA (119, 62, 27)

This popular attraction is for folks who yearn for an age when entertainment was simple and wholesome, when people crowded into an arena to watch two men armed with swords and a shield try and hack the other to pieces.

IS MY EX-MALE ESCORT HUSBAND BACK AT IT?

Dear Randi: MY husband had made lots of money as an in-world male escort before we were married in SL. He was running a gay club here, but although he has always insisted he isn't gay himself, he was making more money having sex with men than any of his employees. Although he still owns the club, he has promised me that he would stop turning tricks. But recently I have become suspicious he is back at it because of the way he has been acting. Should I confront him about this? — L.C.

Randi says: You need to have a talk with him, clarifying your original agreement. Make sure you don't accuse him of anything specific, but just ask him to promise he's no longer working as an escort. If you remain suspicious after a month, ask him again. If the answer doesn't satisfy you, it may be best to end your relationship. One of you might not be good enough for the other.

THE BREAST WAY TO IMPRESS HIS FRIENDS

Dear Randí: I HAVE a new boyfriend in SL who is as intelligent and talented as he is goodlooking. We have done some in-world modelling work together, and we love to go out to clubs. He has always told me how beautiful I am, but one day last week he said he was disappointed with the size of my breasts. He wants me to make them bigger so that his friends will envy him. I created my avatar so that it looks a lot like my RL self and I am proud of that. Should I change for him? — P.D.

Randí says: He sounds like a cad to me. But if he's that wonderful to you, it may be time for a compromise. Design an alternate shape for yourself, with everything the same except for outsize breasts. And then tell him the only time he gets to see you that way is when you're alone together in the bedroom. That should satisfy him, but if it doesn't you may need a new boyfriend.

DOS AND DON'TS OF SWIMMING

- Switch strokes in your HUD to try freestyle, backstroke and breaststroke.
- + Purchase some killer trunks or a bikini to swim in style.
- + Seek out one of SL's many beautiful beaches, pools and lakes to frolic in.
- + Use controls like arrow up and down to swim and Page Dn to dive.

 Buy a swimming animation that doesn't match the type of water prims you will use.

DONT

- Leave your regular AO on while swimming.
- Try to put on your swim animation while in a no-script area.
- Neglect to turn your swimmer off when you want to stop swimming.
- Forget to look under the water while you're swimming. It's a whole other world down there!
